

CLIENT
Midtown Capital

PRODUCT
DS280

Procter House is a 1960's office building in Holborn, the client wanted a shallow void depth luminaire but suitable for plasterboard and with a dropped side effect to create some side illumination. A universal body was used which allowed the fitting to be installed in either the exposed Tee ceiling or the areas with plasterboard.